ALLIES WILL MAKE IT CLEAR TO GERMANS THAT THEY WILL HAVE TO SIGN

BY JOHN EDWIN NEVIN.
Paris, June 14.—When the reply of the Allied and Associated powers to Germany's counter peace proposals is handed to Count Von Brockdorff Rantzau, head of the German peace delegation, on Monday, the outstanding factor will be the positive and emphatic declaration of complete unanimity among Germany's enemies. Unless Germany accepts the consequences the terms will be carried out with the sternest possible "iron hand."

All efforts of the Germans to create discord among the Allied plenipotentiaries have been emphatically defeated, it was declared today in official American circles.

Premier Lloyd George, of England, who for awhile opposed some of the suggestions of the Americans and French has finally come to a complete agreement with his colleagues. Count Von Brockdorff-Rantzau will leave for Weimar as soon as he receives the Entente's reply.

The chief German envoy will hold a conference with government officials in Weimar on Tuesday to decide upon a decisive course of action. In the meanwhile the time limit imposed on Germany will include the necessary three days abrogating the armistice, making it possible for the immediate resumption of hostilities in the event Germany rejects the treaty.

The only chance that Germany has of securing additional time beyond the five days decided upon is in the event that government changes are decided upon. If ministry changes occur, however, the officials in control must give their pledge that the successors to the present German cabinet will accept the terms.

American delegates insisted that the fact that changes of verbiage in certain of the treaty terms presented to Germany made it necessary to draft a complete substitute for the original treaty and that such action was fully justified.

The council of five has been endeavoring to withhold the text from publication pending submission to the Germans on Monday.

It is stated, however, that the revised document will be made public probably at once after it is presented to Count Von Brockdorff-Rantzau and his colleagues.

The French are said to be fully satisfied with the changes in the League of Nations constitution which provides for the admission of Germany to membership "within a short time" as soon as Germany demonstrates that she is a self governed nation, meeting all of her treaty obligations.

It is understood that Premier Clemenceau has given way on his proposals regarding the left bank of the Rhine, which he was urging for the safeguarding of the future of France's eastern frontier.

The Poles are extremely dissatisfied with the provisions for a plebiscite in upper Silesia. However, the Big Five are understood to be unanimous on this point.

Members of the American mission today directed attention to an editorial in the final number of the "Stars and Stripes," the official newspaper of the American Expeditionary Forces. It said, in part:

"The Prussian guardsmen died hard. The men in frock coats who make the laws never had to stand up against him. They never took a machine gun nest nor saw a barrage roll down upon them. We know what the Prussian guardsman means—his code, his cold courage and his blind patriotism that sent him forward, granting none the right to live but only those who wore his uniform."

RECRUITS WILL GO DIRECTLY ABOARD SHIP

The Navy Recruiting Officer stationed at Springfield, has been authorized to enlist ex-soldiers and Marines and send them direct to the nearest recruiting ship.

Under this new ruling it is now possible for these men to be enlisted as seamen second class and be given a berth on board ship immediately upon their enlistment. This will do away with the bother of again going through a training station, at the same of pay than is paid to apprentice seamen starting them off at a better rate man while they are in training.

CONSTANTINOPLE TO TO BE HELD BY TURKS

Paris, June 14.—The Big Four of the peace conference have decided to allow the Turks to retain Constantinople, according to Pierre Loti, famous French writer and student of Ottoman affairs.

M. Loti accuses the Greeks of burning the houses of sixty thousand Muslims in order to reduce the Turkish population and also setting on fire a portion of the palace formerly occupied by the Sultan in Constantinople.

HANGS SELF IN JAIL.

Stuvenville, O., June 14.—Frank Porter, 37, hanged himself in a cell at the city jail last night, using his belt. He was found by his brother who came to endeavor to effect his release.

AMERICA MUST AID EUROPE TO PROTECT LOANS

Chicago, June 14.—America must protect its loans and other financial interests in Europe by aiding Europe to bear the burden of its reconstruction expenses, in the opinion of Henry P. Davidson, of the firm of J. P. Morgan and Company, expressed in an address to a meeting of Chicago bankers.

To do this, Davidson said, co-ordination of all industries under one central organization, supported and assisted by the federal government, will be necessary. Extension of credits on a scale larger than ever before will be necessary, Davidson said, although all credits must be carefully supervised.

All location of orders for goods and distribution of goods must be under central control so that America's export trade, which will form the basis of this country's aid to Europe, may proceed without confusion.

WOMEN OF NEW YORK ACCEPT CIGARETTE AS CONVENTIONAL

New York, June 14.—Miss New York, and most likely Mrs. New York, have accepted the cigarette as absolutely and wholly conventional—within the rights of women, if you please, and the act is to take place right before the very gaze of the public.

And how do ye know it? Just listen to the wording of an enterprising New York firm which, under the heading "Should a Woman Smoke," runs the following ad:

"We don't know or we cannot say. But we know that many of New York's charming women do indulge. And we know that we can supply the needs of those who do. Everything for the man or woman who has a warm spot in his or her heart for a cool smoke."

And there you are, after having read the story, with a dainty bit of food for thought at the breakfast table. And what's more, several enterprising New Yorkers either have or are arranging cozy little rooms where milady, while out shopping or taking in the latest matinee or evening attraction, may adjourn and indulge in a few trusty inhales.

Oh, it's awful, but it's true.

In the afternoon, Dr. Murray S. Kenworthy, executive secretary of Wilmington Yearly Meeting, will speak upon "Tomorrow's Pastor." He is a strong speaker, and his message will be a timely one. Discussion will follow the address.

GERMANS BELIEVE THAT PREMIER CLEMENCEAU WILL BE OVERTHROWN

By W. L. Orpal.
(Exclusive Cable to the I. N. S. from London Daily Express.)

Berlin, June 13, via London, June 14.—The overthrow of Premier Clemenceau of France is considered a matter of but a few days, according to belief expressed here today.

French and Italian strikes are strengthening the sentiment of the national assembly against the signing of the treaty.

Emil Barth, one of the Independent Socialist leaders, declared today that the cabinet and national assembly would refuse to sanction the signing of the treaty and would then "await the entente's first step."

"We are passive in the west, but active on our eastern frontier against the Poles," Barth said. "All of the peasantry have been armed for this purpose and numerous troops have been posted at various points. A nationalist upheaval in the eastern part of the country is inevitable.

"If the government resigns the Independent Socialist and the Communists will form a government and send delegates to Versailles to sign a pledge for the fulfillment of all of the terms of the treaty."

Prince Max Baldeu, former chancellor, in another article, in the Berliner Tageblatt, insists that "a real Wilson peace," must be obtained.

The people's opposition to the Versailles terms is sufficiently strong to force a revision of the terms, Prince Max argues.

Germany is unable to sign a "wrong peace," declared Prince Max, adding "we must subject to sufferings for a short time before we sign such a document."

DEMONSTRATION AGAINST DRY LAW IS STAGED IN WASHINGTON, D. C.

Washington, June 14.—Labor and the anti-prohibitionists allied themselves for an offensive today upon the capitol.

Plans were completed by labor leaders and those opposing prohibition for a great demonstration on the steps of the capitol in favor of the repeal of the war-time prohibition in so much as it affects beer and light wines. According to those organizing the demonstration 100,000 men were to march upon the capitol this afternoon to demonstrate to congress their opposition to prohibition. From every part of the country delegates arrived today to join in the protest. A special train was due to arrive from Atlantic City carrying a delegation of 300 from the convention of the American Federation of Labor. Washington labor unions were forming in bodies to join the march.

Each train arriving at the Union station bore delegations and the gathering on the Union station plaza continued to grow during the morning.

Two o'clock was set as the zero hour, when the body would march on the capitol building accompanied by several brass bands.

Members of congress were personally visited during the morning and invited to be on the capitol steps at 2 o'clock and show what labor thinks of prohibition of beer and light wines. Delegations from the several states sought out their representatives in the office buildings and committee rooms and urged them to use their influence in bringing about the repeal of war-time prohibition.

WILL NOT ACCEPT TERMS GERMANS OFFICIALLY SAY

Copenhagen, June 14.—Official announcement was made in Berlin today that the German government would not accept the peace terms even in modified form and that a decision is up to the national assembly, said a dispatch from the German capitol.

The idea of holding a national plebiscite to allow the people to vote on acceptance or rejection of the terms has been abandoned.

GERMANS THINK THE ALLIES WILL MODIFY TERMS

Weimar, June 13.—Via Berlin and London, June 14.—German ministers who are gathered here for the social democrat convention and the forthcoming session of the national assembly expressed belief today that the Entente will modify the peace conditions regarding Silesia.

"We rather think that concessions will pave the way for us to sign," one minister said.

It was reported from Paris that the terms regarding the Silesian frontier had been revised, and that Germany would be enabled to secure coal from the Silesian basin.

OVERLAND PLANT OPERATES UNDER FEDERAL PROTECTION

Toledo, O., June 14.—The next three days are expected to decide whether the strike at the Overland and Autolite plants will be broken. Both plants are now operating under federal protection but the strikers maintain that not enough men have reported for duty to enable all departments to open. United States marshals enforced strictly the order that none but Americans could picket the Overland plant. Five men, all aliens, have been arrested. It is charged that they were endeavoring to start trouble late yesterday near the plant. Police say they are the same men who were prominent in the rioting which resulted in two deaths recently.

BROKER OPERATORS VOTE ON STRIKE

Chicago, June 14.—Members of the Western Brokers' division of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union are taking a vote today on the question of joining in the strike of telegraphers of the Western Union and Postal Telegraph companies. Several days, it is declared, will be required to complete the vote.

The proposed strike of broker men is not a sympathetic one, according to F. A. Davis, president of the Western Brokers' division. The chief point involved Davis declared, is the handling of "contraband" messages in the form of exchange news and quotations furnished by the commercial companies. Even if the broken men vote only to bar contraband matter, it is asserted, a large part of the broker business will be tied up. Officials of the telegraphers union claim today that the strike is gaining headway throughout the country and that more men are going out. They are still counting strongly upon the strike of electrical workers on Monday and the probable strike of telephone operators to aid them in their fight against the commercial companies.

Reports from officials of the Western Union declare that their business is "as usual," while the Postal company, hardest hit by the strike, reports conditions improving.

HOPS OFF IN FLIGHT OVERSEAS

St. Johns, June 14.—Captain Alcock, in his big Vickers-Vimy bombing machine "hopped off" in an attempt to fly across the Atlantic ocean at 16:13 meridian time (about 12:13 New York time) this afternoon.

The start was made after it had once been abandoned for the day. Early in the day Captain Alcock prepared for the flight but a strong, adverse wind caused him to postpone the attempt. It was announced that the start probably would be put off until tomorrow. Shortly before noon, however, the wind veered around and the word went forth that the start would be made today. A good sized crowd was on hand to witness the start. The big machine took the air gracefully and after swinging around over the starting point she headed east across the Atlantic.

Lieut. A. W. Brown, R. A. F., Captain Alcock's navigator, was his only passenger. The big machine carried a four pound bag of mail, put aboard her at the last moment.

Captain Alcock will win the Daily Mail prize of $50,000 if he accomplishes the flight, as he is flying direct for Ireland. He expects to reach the Irish coast in about 20 hours.

The weather was fine for the attempt. Reports from abroad said that good conditions were reported along the course Captain Alcock expects to take. There was a possibility that the Handley-Page machine may also attempt to start its trans-Atlantic jump today. Admiral Mark Kerr, its pilot, however said that it was unlikely that he would start before tomorrow.

TWO HUNDRED AND FIFTY FORMER STUDENTS OF CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL ENJOY ALUMNI BANQUET FRIDAY NIGHT

For the first time in seventeen years members of the Central High School Alumni Association gathered around the banquet board Friday evening, when the Association received the incoming members of the class of 1919 in the rooms of the Xenia Business Men's Association.

A larger representation than has ever yet assembled at an Alumni affair was present, two hundred and fifty former students of Central High School gathering to welcome the incoming Seniors. The occasion was significant because it represented the largest assemblage ever present at an Alumni affair, was the first banquet in years and marked the reception into the Association of the largest class ever graduated from Central High School.

Tables were laid in both the dining room and the assembly room to accommodate the large crowd present. Junior reception decorations, gayly displaying the class colors, served to beautify the rooms. A delicious menu, prepared by Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Kany, was served by girls of the class of 1918. The menu consisted of strawberry ice, chicken patties, creamed peas, mashed potatoes, rolls, coffee fruit salad, strawberries and ice cream and cake.

A program of after dinner speeches that were interesting and highly entertaining was carried out following the banquet, the guests being assembled in the assembly room for the speeches. President James D. Adair delivered the address of welcome to the incoming class of 1919 to which President Earl Hartssock of the class responded.

Mr. Adair introduced the toastmaster of the evening, Arthur Kany, of the Class of 1902, the class which gave the last Alumni banquet. Mr. Kany was very clever and entertaining in his role as toastmaster. He said "the occasions are all too infrequent when we get together. This is the first real Alumni banquet since the 1902 class gave a banquet. But here we are, 17 years later, just like the locusts." Mr. Kany reminisced a little of his own school days, and paid a glowing tribute to Miss Jean B. Elwell, of the English department. He introduced Rev. J. H. Littell, former pastor of a large congregation in Chicago, but who has been here since returning from overseas where he was with the Y. M. C. A. "It is an occasion like this which makes America," said Rev. Littell. "What makes American boys the kind of boys they are?" say the French. "There are two things: First education and the class of education; second, the teachings of Jesus." Rev. Littell's talk was instructive as well as interesting.

Miss Lois Gartrell varied the program by singing "At Dawn," accompanied on the piano by Miss Louise Clark. Mrs. John Van Eaton, (Sarah Harper) gave a splendid and most interesting talk on her subject of "Hobbies." Mrs. Van Eaton's address was very well received and was cleverly given. She was followed by Alfred Casad, who sang "America, For Us," accompanied at the piano by Mary Julia Whittington.

Elbert L. Babb, was next introduced by Mr. Kany. Mr. Babb announced as his subject "International Chop Suey." Serving as third speaker on the program, Mr. Babb said he felt that he was in the capacity of "clean up man" to use baseball lingo, and he made his address by picking up the odds and ends left by other speakers. He championed the British a little when he said they "were the most maligned and mistreated people in the world today." Mr. Babb also related many of his experiences with the big guns in France ending with a tribute to America as the best place on earth and an injunction to "see America first."

Howard Bratton, '92, newspaper man of Faribault, Minn., was called on by Mr. Kany and he gave an interesting impromptu address. "After all these old associations are the best," said Mr. Bratton. He also spoke of the value of the High School diploma as a testimonial of the stability and sticktoitiveness of the students who received them.

Mr. Bratton's address was the last address of the evening and was followed by a business session. The report of the nominating committee, consisting of Miss Edna Bloom, Mrs. Findley Torrence and Lawrence Prugh was received and was approved in its original form, the following officers for next year being elected: President, J. Robert Bryson; Vice-Pres., Louise Shaffer; Sec., Nelle Wilson; Treas., Hivling Stokes.

Acting for Miss Clara Wright, who is out of the city, Miss Allegra Hawes read the minutes of last year's meeting and Miss Alma Babb, treasurer, read the treasurer's report.

Despite the warmth of the evening, the majority of the guests enjoyed the dancing which immediately followed the program. Splendid dance music was furnished by an orchestra made up of Clarence Jeffries, piano, Irvin Swindler drums, and Mr. Ray, London, saxophone. The company danced until twelve o'clock.

To the outgoing officers goes the entire credit for the success of the first Alumni banquet in 17 years. To them is due the praise for having the initiative to vary the annual reception programs somewhat, and to give something really worth while and decidedly attractive.

The outgoing officers are: President, James D. Adair; Vice President, Helen Jones; Treasurer, Alma Babb; Secretary, Clara Wright. These officers wish to extend their thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Kany, who engineered the banquet, to the men who assisted in the serving and to the girls of the class of 1918 who acted as waitresses.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

The Junior Order gave a banquet at their hall last night at which Mr. Ernest Hustmyer rendered the song, "Because," in a very pretty manner. We are very sorry to hear more complaints of the ravages of the Hessian fly on the wheat hereabouts.

On the Henry Conklin farm on the Columbus pike, where 25 bushels should have been expected, hardly 10 will be realized.

Goodrich's More Mileage Proclamation

Be it known to every automobile owner and driver in the United States—to Goodrich Dealers—that Goodrich Safety Treads stand ready to deliver 6,000 miles, and Silver-town Cords 8,000, under proper usage.

That is, every SAFETY TREAD in use, and in a Goodrich Dealer's store, is underwritten to be adjusted at 6,000 miles—and every SILVERTOWN CORD at 8,000 miles.

That new adjustment is based upon what Goodrich knows its tires will do, and Goodrich knows from miles and miles of road-testing that Goodrich Tires are the strongest, the best, the rubber industry has produced.

They are so good that Goodrich increases its adjustment mileage to show its patrons they cannot afford not to share in their matchless service and security.

MAY OUR HEROIC DEAD NOT HAVE DIED IN VAIN.

Germany was and is, and no doubt will continue to be, narrow-minded and self-opinionated, and will not see things as they are! No better illustration of this fact can be cited than her present boneheaded course in virtually trying to dictate to her conquerors what she demands in the terms of peace! She is virtually making a world laughing-stock of herself! It is all right to die game! One has admiration and respect for a true sport! But a good sport knows when he is licked, and that is something that it seems Germany cannot get through its national, solid-ivory skull!

The opponents of the league of nations among other things object to the work of the Peace Conference in making the league of nations a constituent part of the peace treaty. That is one of the best features of the whole work of the Peace Conference. During the war the very best weapon of the Allies was their united, harmonious co-operation in the conduct of the war. The only way that Germany can be compelled to carry out the terms of peace is to continue that united front by the Allies that was so successful during the war. What better means of enforcing the peace treaty can there be than to have Germany's opponents united in this league of nations, and providing that this league shall be the means to enforce the conditions imposed upon Germany, if she should become obstinate?

These are the views taken by millions of people in this country. Why should the United States Senate stand as a set of school boys, discussing treaty "leaks" and other non-essentials? Have the members no realization of the high ideals for which our boys left their native land and fought the brave fight in the trenches of Europe?

We read that on our recent Memorial Day the graves of our loyal dead "over there" were decorated, even as in our home land. Why? Because of patriotic motives, and hope that they shall not have died in vain. Shall not the rest of us, including the U. S. Senators, have continuously in thought the noble words of Abraham Lincoln:

"It is for us, the living, rather to be dedicated here to the unfinished work that they have thus far nobly carried on. It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us, that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to the cause for which they here gave the last full measure of devotion, that we here highly resolve that the dead shall not have died in vain; that the nation shall, under God, have a new birth of freedom and that government of the people, by the people and for the people shall not perish from the earth."

RIGHTS OF THE POOR.

Many social Ishmaelites and rabid pariahs, militant against the whole structure of society today, proceed on the false assumption that the world refuses to the poor their right to life, liberty and happiness. Those who would rob a poor man of his chances, those who would take bread from the mouths of his family, are the very ones who fight against all forms of law and order, who seek to tear down the slowly up-built and stabilized scheme of the social organism.

Loosen up, give the kid plenty of

Let us clearly recognize the real enemies of society. These enemies are the ones who would entirely sweep away all that mankind in thoughtful concert has achieved by untold centuries of painful travail. They would not merely set back the hands of the clock, but destroy all sense of time and all zeal for progress. They have learned nothing in the school of experience; they do not know that history has repeatedly shown the folly of supposing that anarchy is happiness.

The real robbers of the weak and the unfortunate are these miscreants who pretend to be the only true friends of the undertrodden, and who use that masquerade for their own predatory ends as an outlaw plunders a mail car or robs a stage.

THE PROMOTER'S WIFE

BY JANE PHELPS.

A REPORTER CALLS UPON
BARBARA.

CHAPTER CXIV.

The bell rang. I shivered as I had at every sound since I had been alone. This time with reason.

"A man down stairs says he must see you ma'am." Cook came up and told me. I tried to tell him you wasn't well—like you told me to—but he acted like he didn't believe me, and said he would wait, and then set down on one of them elegant plush chairs like he was going to stay all day.

"Tell him I will see him. Take him into the library."

"Very well, ma'am. But he ain't quite your sort, ma'am. Not quite." I knew it was a reporter. It was hard for me to dissemble, always had been. But I must not let him get anything out of me. I recalled Mr. Frederick's warning to be "as stupid as possible." I WOULD be stupid.

When I saw the youngish man with a rusty overcoat, and heavy glasses I understood Cook's "not quite your sort." Yet he had a nice face and looked kind.

"You wished to see me? I am Mrs. Forbes," I said as he rose.

"Yes, the Morning Argus would like to know how you feel about your husband's trouble," he had hesitated just a moment before the word, "and where he is at present."

"I don't know anything about anything," I replied, wondering if that were a stupid enough answer.

"But surely you know where your husband is?"

"Surely I don't. He never tells me things. He just went away." I felt I didn't know exactly where he was just then, so was not telling a very gross untruth. By the expression on my interviewer's face I knew I was being "stupid" all right. I was almost hysterical as I saw it.

"Do you know this man Scott?"

"Mr. Forbes never brings men home with him. He knows I don't like them."

"Will you tell me why?" A gleam of satisfaction in his face. He evidently thought he was now going to learn something.

"Why I just don't like to have them here that's all. I can't talk business, I don't know anything about it. I like people to come to see me that I can talk to. People like—oh, well my society friends." He looked disappointed but persisted.

"Shall you go on living here?"

"Why not? I opened my eyes wide at him.

"Oh, I thought perhaps because of all this trouble you might have to give up this," his gesture embraced the entire house.

"I don't know anything," I repeated, allowing a note of impatience to creep into my voice, and changing from one foot to the other. We were both standing firm, altho he had asked me if I would not prefer to sit.

"Will you tell me Mrs. Forbes if your husband contemplates going on with his business? Is he coming back?" a cunning look in his eyes.

"You know just as much as I do. I am not very well today, I have a headache. If I have told you all you want to know will you please excuse me."

"Certainly madame. And I will also give you the compliment of saying you are very clever. For a bright clever looking woman you are about as stupid a one as I ever have come across. Stupid because you want to be, or have been told to be.

After he left I laughed and cried hysterically. It had been so funny, like a bit out of a play, yet it had also been hard to act the part. I wondered if he would have something in his paper about the "financier's stupid wife," and if he would print my replies to his questions.

I also felt rather proud of the report I should have to give Mr. Frederick. I surely had said nothing which could make any trouble for any one. Little did I realize the resourcefulness of reporters.

The next morning I sent cook out to buy an "Argus." I recoiled with horror when I saw in bold type on the first page:

"An interview with Mrs. Forbes. Her story will interest our readers etc."

At the close of the war, he was discharged at Long Island, and immediately re-enlisted for four years, and was sent to Ellington Field. He thinks a lot of the fellows will soon be discharged, as there will be no use for them since the war has closed. He thinks, too, he would like to be one of the lucky ones to be sent home. No goal now for which to strive.

DAINTY CANDY SHOP OPENED IN XENIA

Prettily arranged and decorated, the "Sugar Bowl" a candy shop owned by L. F. Clevenger, has been opened on Green street.

White being used in the decorative scheme the shop is dainty, clean, cool and sanitary looking. Handsome show cases display the home-made candies manufactured by Mr. Clevenger himself. The room has been divided, the rear part being used as the candy kitchens where the dainty and toothsome concoctions are made and the front as a sales and show room.

The decorations of the shop were made under the supervision of Mr. Clevenger's son, Ralph Clevenger, who is connected with a large decorating house in Dayton.

GIVES A SHOWER FOR BRIDE-ELECT

Miss May Haines delightfully entertained twenty-four young ladies at her home on North Galloway street, Friday evening in honor of Miss Nellie Chambliss, the bride-elect of Irvin Swindler, whose marriage will take place on next Wednesday evening. The house was beautifully decorated and a color scheme of pink and white carried out. Dainty baskets of pink and white roses adorned the rooms and an artistic wedding bell was the center of attraction.

The party was in the nature of a miscellaneous shower and the bride was the recipient of many beautiful and useful gifts. Music and games furnished much pleasure particularly a bird contest for which the winners were awarded attractive prizes. The first prize was won by Miss Anna Graham and the consolation prize by Miss Vesta Peterson. Delicious refreshments were served and the guests departed at a late hour, showering the guest of honor with best wishes for a happy future and voting Miss Haines a charming hostess.

MICHELIN

Reasons Why Michelin Tires Have Become So Popular

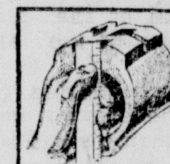

Consider the following facts about Michelin Universals, and see if you do not agree, that you should use these tires. Now is the time to reach a decision—which, if properly made, will spare you much expense and annoyance during the months ahead.

1—UNEQUALLED EXPERIENCE. The illustration shows Michelin demonstrating the world's first pneumatic automobile tire, which he introduced in 1895. For 24 years Michelin has concentrated on pneumatic tires exclusively. No other tire maker has this unequalled experience.

2—BETTER MATERIALS. The quality of the materials used in Michelin Casings and Inner Tubes has always been the best that money can buy. This well-known fact largely accounts for the superior durability and economy for which Michelin Tires are famous the world over.

3—THICKNESS. Measure the thickness of Michelin Universals in comparison with other makes and you will find they contain more rubber and fabric than do other tires. All this extra material is of the highest quality, as already stated, and hence means greater mileage.

4—EXTRA WEIGHT. A simple comparative test will also show you that Michelin Universals weigh twelve to fifteen per cent more than other tires—additional proof that Michelines are more generously made and have greater mileage built into them. This weight test is important.

5—BROAD FLAT TRACTION-SURFACE. A broad flat tread wears away more slowly than the small rubber on the end of a pencil. So with tires—the tread that is broad and flat lasts much longer than one with small projections. Note Michelin's superiority in this respect.

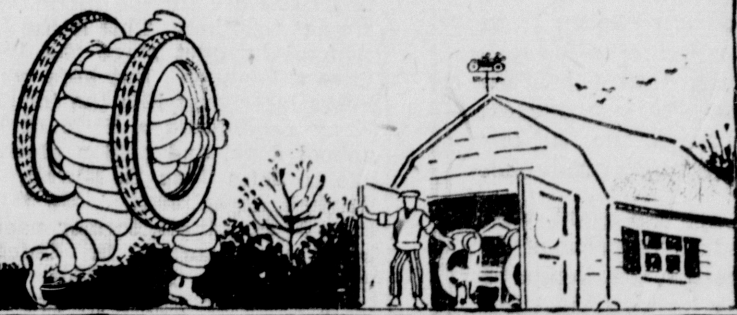

6—MODERATE PRICES. Despite their high quality and superior design Michelin Casings and Inner Tubes are moderate in price. The truth of this statement is easily proved by comparing Michelin prices with the prices asked for other tires of anything like the same quality.

In view of the fact that Michelin has devoted 24 years and all his world-wide resources to the manufacture of pneumatic tires exclusively, are you not willing to test Michelines on your own car and be convinced?

Nothing proves Michelin superiority like actual use

FORMER XENIA GIRL EDITS FRENCH PAPER

Miss Helen Armstrong, formerly a student of Xenia High School, is a member of the graduating class of Wadleigh H. S. in New York City. Miss Armstrong is one of the editors of "La Petite France," a little paper published by the French pupils of Wadleigh High. Miss Dillencourt is the recipient of a copy which was sent by Miss Armstrong. It is a delightful little publication entirely in the French language, and certainly shows remarkable knowledge of the language on the part of Miss Armstrong and her assistants.

MURRY-LEACH

On Thursday afternoon at 3:15 the marriage of Miss Faye Leach, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Leach, of Xenia, and Mr. Ray H. Murry, of Jamestown, was solemnized at the home of Rev. Robert Albright of Amelia, Ohio.

Only a few friends witnessed the ceremony. Miss Ruth Wilkinson and Mr. Earl Murry, brother of the groom were the attendants.

The bride looked lovely in her robe of white crepe de chine while Miss Wilkinson was charming in her dress of blue.

Immediately after the ceremony a luncheon was served, after which the couple returned to their home near Xenia.

Mr. and Mrs. Murry have both been teachers in Greene county and they have the best wishes of a host of friends.

"None of that Pajama stuff for me"

said a friend of ours when the subject turned to Palm Beach clothes. "When it comes to dressing like a parade, I pass."

He didn't know that Palm Beach suits were made in all DARK colors. Nobody ever acquainted him with the fact that Summer clothes are no longer "show clothes."

It never dawned on him that a Palm Beach suit could be as well made and as stylish as a woolen suit—and it's no wonder for he had never seen

INVITATIONS TO WEDDING ISSUED

Xenia relatives and friends of Miss Mildred Jordan of Wilmington, who is well known here have received invitations to her wedding, reading: Mr. and Mrs. I. Q. Jordan Request your presence at the marriage of their daughter, Mildred Wood to Mr. Russell Haines Lieutenant Reserve Corps, Aviation Section on Thursday evening, June the twenty-sixth Nineteen hundred and nineteen at eight o'clock The First Baptist Church Wilmington, Ohio.

Charitable.

"I shouldn't say in so many words that Mrs. Gabbatol is a liar," observed the lady who weighed well the words of her mouth and the meditations of her heart before releasing them to the public, "but I will say that she is remarkably well misinformed."

MUST HAVE REAL MERIT

Anybody or anything to command confidence must deserve it.

A medicine that has commanded the confidence of the public for half a century, as Hood's Sarsaparilla has, does, has merit, real merit.

This is something for you to bear in mind when you are in need of a medicine for your blood, stomach, liver, or kidneys, the ordinary diseases, or ailments of which are cured or relieved by Hood's Sarsaparilla, as thousands of three generations have voluntarily testified.

When you buy Hood's Sarsaparilla, you buy a medicine that has outlived the formative period, in which there is more or less experiment, and has been fully developed for years, during which it has made a unique record by what it has accomplished for the sick and ailing, according to their own story.

HISTORY OF ANTIOCH SENIOR CLASS ENACTED IN A PERFORMANCE

A history of the class since its Freshman year at Antioch, its last will and testament, and the prophecy of its members future, was cleverly enacted by the Seniors of Antioch college last night for their class performance.

The performance took place on the steps of the main auditorium to the principal college building, and the guests were seated on the campus. The whole affair was very clever, and because of its originality and variety, was greatly enjoyed by the audience.

Each member of the class had a share in the writing and dramatization of the class history, which was done as part of the senior year work. Chief events of each college year except the Junior were enacted.

After the history, the prophecy was acted out, and then the last will and testament each member appearing in the prophecy in the part which he or she had laid out for a life work, and in the act of tendering to the students remaining in college, the articles which they were leaving behind.

The program concluded with the planting of the class ivy, and the burning of unwanted personal effects of the seniors in a huge bonfire, to which each member contributed some article.

A very enjoyable event of college week, was the June breakfast which was given in honor of the seniors by the juniors at Bryan Park Friday morning.

The Union Literary Society will hold its anniversary meeting Saturday night. The address will be given by Supreme Judge James G. Johnson, of Springfield.

Baccalaureate exercises will be held in the college chapel Sunday evening, and the address will be given by the Rev. George Stibitz, of Dayton.

The Star Literary Society will hold its anniversary meet Monday night, and the Rev. John Malick of Cincinnati, will be the speaker.

MRS. BRYANT RYALL REACHES LONDON

Mrs. Bryant Ryall (Katherine Childs) has reached London in safety on her trip from Archangel, Russia, according to a cable message received by her mother, who is in Sherman, N. Y., news of which came to friends in this city.

Mr. Ryall, a Y. M. C. A. secretary, who was captured by Russian Bolsheviks, was not released at the time his companion, Merle V. Arnold, was given his liberty. His wife will await him in London, and they will return together to this country.

COURT NEWS

Alleging that the defendant abandoned her and his family without cause, Robert Riley brought suit yesterday for divorce from James Riley, and custody of their children, aged 5 and 3 years. They were married June 25, 1913, and she says that he abandoned her March 25, 1916. She asks that the defendant be barred from interest in real estate in Xenia which she says she bought out of her own earnings.

In Magistrate J. E. Jones court, a jury awarded Glenn Humston a verdict for $20 against the J. A. Long Creamery company for damages to his buggy caused when a truck of the defendant company collided with the vehicle last winter. The creamery company has appealed the case to common pleas court.

NEWS FROM MRS. BREWSTER, WHO IS IN HINGHWA, CHINA

A relative by marriage of an old time Xenia family, (the Nesbitt family of just south of Xenia) Mrs. W. N. Brewster, of the Hingwa Methodist Episcopal Mission, Nig-Saub, Hingwa, Fukien, China, has sent to some Xenia friends some Chinese literature, printed in English that is very interesting, more especially to those who take interest in Chinese Christian Missions. One of the surprises over this literature is the fact that a Romanized method of Chinese reading has been devised which facilitates the art perfectly wonderful. In one little regular publication is given the report of the "graduating exercises" of an evangelical campaign of eleven days in teaching how to read by this new method. Over thirty persons, in ages from children to some over 60 years old, received "diplomas" for their ability to read the eleven lessons of the Primer and spell the words correctly. This group of young and old had learned more about reading their own language in eleven days than they had been able to learn in two or three years in the Chinese character method. Who would say that this is not a most wonderful work? Any one wishing to make a special gift to Mrs. Brewster, to help in this great work, can do so by remittance care of Dr. F. M. North, No. 150 Fifth Ave., New York City.

BIJOU

Movie fans will enjoy an unusual program parallel Monday, when Bryant Washburn, who has experienced sudden rise to stardom and popularity, appears both at the Bijou Theater and the Orpheum Theater.

At the Bijou he plays the lead in "Poor Bob" a nut, whose profound and continuous mistakes caused him all sorts of trouble. Finally inspired by a girl he uses a little of his native nerve and a word of bluff and manages to land on the top of the heap. In "Simp" Hightower, Washburn was a well adapted character and one in which he makes a decided hit. The cast consists of Wanda Hawley, Dick Rossen, Theodore Roberts, Raymond Hutton, Jay Diggins, Charles Ogle, Jane Wolff Mary Thurman and Guy Oliver. And also is he clever at the ORPHIUM where in "All Wrong," a Pathe production, he has a decidedly new, original and interesting vehicle.

In the role of Warren Kent, a salesman, who has some decidedly original views of matrimony in which he endeavors to carry out an "unending courtship," Washburn has opportunity for many bright comedy situations that create laughter every minute. Counterplot follows counterplot in the picture to a happy and mirthful conclusion. Washburn is supported by Mildred Davis, Charles Bennett, Helen Dunbar, Fred Montague and Marguerite Livingston.

MUST HAVE REAL MERIT

Anybody or anything to command confidence must deserve it. A medicine that has commanded the confidence of the public for half a century, as Hood's Sarsaparilla has done, has merit, real merit.

This is something for you to bear in mind when you are in need of a medicine for your blood, stomach, liver, or kidneys, the ordinary diseases or ailments of which are cured or relieved by Hood's Sarsaparilla, as thousands of three generations have voluntarily testified.

When you buy Hood's Sarsaparilla, you buy a medicine that has outlived the formative period, in which there is more or less experiment, and has been fully developed for years, during which it has made a unique record by what it has accomplished for the sick and ailing, according to their own story.

HISTORY OF ANTIOCH SENIOR CLASS ENACTED IN A PERFORMANCE

A history of the class since its Freshman year at Antioch, its last will and testament, and the prophecy of its members future, was cleverly enacted by the Seniors of Antioch college last night for their class performance.

The performance took place on the steps of the main auditorium to the principal college building, and the guests were seated on the campus. The whole affair was very clever, and because of its originality and variety, was greatly enjoyed by the audience.

Each member of the class had a share in the writing and dramatization of the class history, which was done as part of the senior year work. Chief events of each college year except the Junior were enacted.

After the history, the prophecy was acted out, and then the last will and testament each member appearing in the prophecy in the part which he or she had laid out for a life work, and in the act of tendering to the students remaining in college, the articles which they were leaving behind.

The program concluded with the planting of the class ivy, and the burning of unwanted personal effects of the seniors in a huge bonfire, to which each member contributed some article.

A very enjoyable event of college week, was the June breakfast which was given in honor of the seniors by the juniors at Bryn Park Friday morning.

The Union Literary Society will hold its anniversary meeting Saturday night. The address will be given by Supreme Judge James G. Johnson, of Springfield.

Baccalaureate exercises will be held in the college chapel Sunday evening, and the address will be given by the Rev. George Stibitz, of Dayton.

The Star Literary Society will hold its anniversary meet Monday night, and the Rev. John Malick of Cincinnati, will be the speaker.

COURT NEWS

Alleging that the defendant abandoned her and his family without cause, Robert Riley brought suit yesterday for divorce from James Riley, and custody of their children, aged 5 and 3 years. They were married June 25, 1913, and she says that he abandoned her March 25, 1916. She asks that the defendant be barred from interest in real estate in Xenia which she says she bought out of her own earnings.

In Magistrate J. E. Jones court, a jury awarded Glenn Humston a verdict for $20 against the J. A. Long Creamery company for damages to his buggy caused when a truck of the defendant company collided with the vehicle last winter. The creamery company has appealed the case to common pleas court.

NEWS FROM MRS. BREWSTER, WHO IS IN HINGHWA, CHINA

A relative by marriage of an old time Xenia family, (the Nesbitt family of just south of Xenia) Mrs. W. N. Brewster, of the Hinghwa Methodist Episcopal Mission, Nig-Saub, Hinghwa, Fukien, China, has sent to some Xenia friends some Chinese literature, printed in English that is very interesting, more especially to those who take interest in Chinese Christian Missions. One of the surprises over this literature is the fact that a Romanized method of Chinese reading has been devised which facilitates the art perfectly wonderful. In one little regular publication is given the report of the “graduating exercises” of an evangelical campaign of eleven days in teaching how to read by this new method. Over thirty persons, in ages from children to some over 60 years old, received “diplomas” for their ability to read the eleven lessons of the Primer and spell the words correctly. This group of young and old had learned more about reading their own language in eleven days than they had been able to learn in two or three years in the Chinese character method. Who would say that this is not a most wonderful work? Any one wishing to make a special gift to Mrs. Brewster, to help in this great work, can do so by remittance card of Dr. F. M. North, No. 150 Fifth Ave., New York City.
